

I like the service that xm radio provides because its not available on regular radio. There is music without interuption , childrens radio thats good and extremly good stations like bbc. I pay for these services and would not like the national association of brodcasters to determine what i listen to. The fcc should reject nba's petition 04-160 and let xm provide me with the quality iam used to.